

JUDGE'S OPINION

I've long been a fan of the allroad, so it's no surprise to me that it's won this category. A superb blend of off-road capability and on-road refinement means that the Audi simply decimates any competition in its sector. And while it may not be the ultimate mud pluggier some may hanker after, it's certainly no disgrace when the tarmac runs out – in fact, it will cope with surprisingly rough conditions. Then, after a day off the beaten track, when it's pointed back at the blacktop it stretches its legs and gives hot hatches a run for their money away from the lights and on high-speed cross country A-road jaunts. Such unsurpassed versatility is the allroad's greatest strength – it rocks!
